PFISTER NARRATOR

ABOUT THE PFISTER NARRATOR PROGRAM:

The goal of The Pfister Hotel's Narrator Program is to capture the unique stories of guests and visitors of The Pfister Hotel and share them with the greater public. The Pfister Narrator will spend his or her time in the lobby of the hotel with the purpose of meeting, interviewing and profiling visitors and guests.

The Pfister Narrator will be expected to work a minimum of 10 hours per week over the course of a one-year period and will publish a minimum of two posts per week. In return, the Narrator will receive his/her choice of a $1,000 monthly stipend, scholarship for continuing education or donation to a charity in his/her honor, complimentary parking and meals within the hotel's cafeteria.

YOUR APPLICATION PACKAGE MUST INCLUDE:

1. This Pfister Narrator application form.
2. A current resume.
3. Two to three samples of recent work, 2015 or later, including title, where it was published or how it was used, and date of publication. At least one sample must be from a blog, podcast, or form of narration you plan to use during your residency.
4. A cover letter that covers the following topics:
 - Relevant qualifications
 - Why The Pfister's Narrator Program is appropriate for your experience and ambitions
 - Creative proposal including your vision for the position
5. Two written, professional letters of recommendation supporting your application and narration abilities.
6. Printouts of all printable items listed above.
7. Electronic copies of all items listed above via Dropbox, WeTransfer or a flash/jump drive.
8. A brief video (hosted on YouTube or Vimeo) of you explaining your proposal and vision for the position. Video should not exceed three minutes, with the link added to the bottom of your written proposal.
9. Availability for an in-person interview on April 22, 2020.

Application materials can be delivered to: The Pfister Hotel, Attn: Donna Basterash

Deadline for applications is 11:59 pm, March 31, 2019. No exceptions will be made.

You must be available for this position from May 15, 2019, to May 14, 2020.
