Historic Skirvin Hilton Hotel Names nationally acclaimed painter and illustrator as new Artist in Residence

Mike Wimmer Appointed as 2016-2017 Artist in Residence at Oklahoma City's #1 Hotel

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oklahoma. (September XX, 2016)-- The Skirvin Hilton Hotel is pleased to announce Mike Wimmer as the fifth artist-in-residence. Wimmer, an accomplished illustrator and painter from Oklahoma, will work from the historic hotel's studio space on Broadway for one year. The space will serve as Wimmer's studio to showcase his artistic talents.

Born and raised in Muskogee, Oklahoma, Wimmer earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the University of Oklahoma in 1983 and a Masters of Fine Art from the Hartford University in Hartford, Conn. in 2009, where his emphasis was illustration.

Mike's artistic work has its own acclaim. From the cover art for Disney's Lion King Soundtrack, to telephone book covers, to full-color, full-page advertisements for some of America's largest corporations, such as RJR Nabisco, Procter and Gamble's Mr. Clean, Huggies Diapers, and packaging for Celestial Seasons Tea Box Covers, his work can be seen everywhere. He is best known for his children's illustrations, which grace the covers of more than 200 books and fill the pages of almost a dozen more. Wimmer has over 40 paintings depicting historic subjects in the Oklahoma State Capitol.

Wimmer currently serves as the Distinguished Visiting Artist and Gallery Director for the Oklahoma City University School of Visual Arts where he develops young minds using his life goal and personal motto – "Learn it, live it, teach it." He serves on the board of the Oklahoma Art in Public Spaces Oversight Committee, and the National Center for Children's Illustrated Literature Museum in Abilene Texas among others.

The Skirvin's selection committee, consisting of leaders in the local art community, the Paseo Art Association and The Skirvin Hilton Oklahoma City, selected Wimmer from a distinguished pool of artists.

“We are thrilled to have Mike as our newest artist-in-residence,” said Gerald Rapport, general manager, The Skirvin Hilton Oklahoma City. “From abstract mosaics, violin making, poetry and encaustics to now a talented painter and illustrator, it’s exciting to see our program continue to bring such creative and ambitious talent to the Skirvin and downtown Oklahoma City. I am confident our hotel guests will enjoy this unique and personal experience.”
